

EducationUSA Canada Spotlights

Slippery Rock University

in Butler County, PA

Slippery Rock University (SRU) has nearly 9,000 students from 39 different states and 38 different countries. Located in western Pennsylvania, Slippery Rock is a welcoming college town just 60 miles north of Pittsburgh, the second largest city in the state. SRU is an easy day's drive from many popular destinations such as Niagara Falls, New York City, Philadelphia, Toronto and Washington D.C. The university is accredited by 20 national accrediting agencies, including Middle States Commission on Higher Education and the Council for Business Schools & Programs.

For more than 130 years, Slippery Rock University has continued to provide students with an affordable, high quality academic experience in a world class environment with access to new technology, research with faculty, and internship opportunities. Slippery Rock University was ranked in the Top 25 for Top Public Schools in the North Region by U.S. News & World Report.

The university's excellence in various health and wellness programs (Exercise Science, Public Health, and Doctorate in Physical Therapy) has played an important role in building its historic reputation. Students can also choose from top programs such as Business, Engineering, Education, Biology, Chemistry, Dance, Music, Political Science, Physics, and Computer Science to name a few. SRU also provides study abroad and travel opportunities to pursue education from anywhere in the world.

SRU has 160 student clubs and organizations, including NCAA Division II athletics with opportunities for sports scholarships. For men, the university offers Baseball, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Indoor Track, Outdoor Track, and Soccer. For women, SRU offers Basketball, Cross Country, Field Hockey, Indoor Track, Lacrosse, Outdoor Track, Soccer, Softball, Tennis, and Volleyball. Many students tend to pair sports with undergraduate programs in Exercise Science, Sport Management, Dance, Physical Education, Fitness Management, or Recreational Therapy.

Upon admission, international undergraduate students are awarded a \$3500 reduced tuition rate and a \$1500 Provost Scholarship. These two scholarships are renewable after your first year with a 3.0 GPA. Please note that students are not required to submit an essay, SAT scores, nor ACT scores. IB, AP scores, or A levels may count as transfer credit. Additionally, SRU proudly guarantees on campus housing for international students. Here is the link to the online international application.

Rock Solid academics. A classic residential campus. A safe, small-town setting. An affordable life-long value. Committed, caring faculty. A once in a lifetime experience.

