

EducationUSA Canada Spotlights

Bowling Green State University

in Bowling Green, OH

Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is a comprehensive state public research university located in Bowling Green, Ohio. Founded in 1910 as the Bowling Green State Normal School, BGSU is one of Ohio's "Four Corners" institutions. It is a Top 100 Public University according to US News and World Report (Top 200 in the National Universities list) which has also recognized the university for its First Year Program and learning communities.

BGSU offers over 200 undergraduate, 54 Master's and 17 doctoral programs in its seven colleges, and enrolls approximately 20,000 students on its main campus in Bowling Green, Ohio. There are approximately 1,000 international students at BGSU, representing 80 countries.

BGSU offers strong programs in Biology, Business (Top 200 in the US), Education, English, Fine Arts, Industrial/Organizational Psychology (#3 in the US), Physical Therapy, Psychology, Public Affairs, Rehabilitation Counseling, Sociology and Speech-Language Pathology. The university is home to the only undergraduate major in Popular Culture in the United States, as well as unique programs in Criminal Justice/Forensics, Architecture (including both Bachelor's and Master's levels), and Aviation Studies.

BGSU is home to over 300 student organizations, and sponsors 18 athletic teams, in addition to several club sports and intramural sports options. BGSU also has great opportunities for its students to start their career opportunities, even during their studies. BGSU guarantees undergraduate students who complete the Falcon Internship Preparation Program, and meet the required criteria, the opportunity to participate in an internship or other experiential learning activity.

The university's application and admission process is easy. Bowling Green State University requires a minimum TOEFL score of 71 (or 6.0 IELTS) and a combined grade point average of 2.5 on a scale of 4.0. Students who take the SAT or ACT are eligible for merit-based scholarships, but these tests are not required for admission. In order for test scores to be automatically uploaded to BGSU, remember our school code is 1069 (for TOEFL and SAT score reporting) or 3240 (for ACT score reporting). You can find the university listed on the Common Application website.

Apply today and secure your place at BGSU!

